

Belgrade, 12 March 2018

CALL FOR ENTRIES

The 27th International Festival of Ethnological Film will be held on 9–13 October 2018. The Ethnographic Museum in Belgrade invites you to participate at the Festival by presenting your films produced in the last three years.

The Festival seeks to promote the successful visual research of traditional and modern cultures all over the world and to contribute to raising general awareness of the importance of cultural heritage for the quality development of human communities.

In addition to the main film programme, which showcases works that compete for Festival awards, the Informative Programme and the Student Programme, the Festival will present a special programme dedicated to the production of films on intangible cultural heritage in the South East Europe, the Pitching Forum, organized by the Balkan Documentary Center (Sofia, Bulgaria).

The main programme and special programmes will be defined by mid-2018.

We would like to draw your attention to the fact that the call for participation in the Festival will be open until 31 May 2018. Please find enclosed the application form and regulation of the Festival.

Kindly submit the entry form to the email: mfef@etnografskimuzej.rs. The detailed information about the Festival and the application procedure can be found on the Festival's website: www.etnofilm.org.

We hope to have an opportunity to collaborate with you and meet in Belgrade in October 2018.

With kind regards,

Saša Srećković, Executive Director of the Festival
